

Constellation Project Rubric 2016-17

Category	Exemplary	Accomplished	Developing	Beginning
	Concrete connection between objectives and project. Presented in a neat, organized and interesting way that goes above and beyond requirements.	Project meets requirements	Identifies objective but shows limited understanding.	Fails to identify important elements or emphasizes unimportant elements. and / or Project is extremely difficult to understand
Constellation pointed out		4	3	2	0
Constellation's line drawing & name shown		4	3	2	0
Season it is visible in		4	3	2	0
Location - area of sky pointed out		4	3	2	0
Constellation boundary shown		4	3	2	0
Line art/artwork shown		4	3	2	0
Myth – Greek/Roman told	6 5	4	3	2	0
Myth – Other Culture	6 5	4	3	2	0
Description of Major Stars	6 5	4	3	2	0
Two Messier objects / Deep Sky objects identified, explained	6 5	4	3	2	0
3D Model – Major stars included; Placement of Stars to scale	6 5	4	3	2	0
Participation – Individual contributions		4	3	2	0
Reflection – due one class period after presentation	Typed and complete reflection that addresses all questions	Reflection answers basic questions	Incomplete and/or handwritten	Illegible or missing
	6 5	4	3	2	0

Comments:

Total _____ / 64

Constellation Project Presentation Responsibility Outline 2016-17

Constellation _____

Group members:

Task	Person Responsible for Research	Person Responsible for Presentation
Constellation pointed out
Constellation's line drawing & name shown
Description of season it is visible in
Location/area of sky constellation located in pointed out
Constellation boundary shown
Line art/artwork shown
Myth – Greek/Roman story told
Myth – Other Culture's story told
Description of Major Stars What will be discussed?
Two Messier objects / Deep Sky objects identified & explained What will be discussed or explained? Are there any images that need to be uploaded ? You have to tell Ms. Barge.
3D Model – Which stars will be included? Is it to scale?
Participation – Individual contributions Are the contributions equitable?	Research	Presentation