

QATAR-1

- .06 times the size of its star
- It likely goes through the middle of it's star or somewhere close.
- Orbit radius of 6 million miles
- Has a transit of somewhere around 2 hours

- The planet has a radius around 81,377 kilometers, making it larger than jupiter

The star Qatar-1 is 1,416.06 light years away, over 91 million times further than our sun!